Chico Cycling Team Commitment to Team Members

Our team is about more than just wearing our kit. Chico Cycling Team offers a complete program for women and men who want to race bicycles, providing all of the following:

- A Race team organization licensed with USCF
- Hosting the Airport Criterium Series and vigorously supporting local racing
- Rider coaching, organized training sessions, regular training rides and twice-weekly yoga for athletes classes
- A deep pool of riders of similar age and category to race and train with
- Regular and timely communications of all training, racing and other events primarily through our Yahoo Group on email, and also Facebook and our website
- Fostering a community based on trust, mentoring and striving to excel
- “Pro-deal” opportunities to purchase tires, wheels, accessories and even bikes at extreme discount through bike shop sponsor throughout the year as announced at meetings and on our YahooGroup, and other sponsor ‘special discounts’. All these are for your personal use only (not to be shared with family or friends)!
- Race reimbursements:
 - Reimbursement amounts per race will be determined after the close of 2018 season and finalization of 2019 sponsorship
 - Reimbursements are contingent upon funds availability and will be proportional to contribution at the end of the season
 - Racing members are eligible for reimbursements after completing 10 races and 10 volunteer hours
 - After completing 20 races and 20 volunteer hours, racers will qualify to receive an additional $5 per race for all races completed, up to $400 “rebate” for kit purchases (provide proof of purchase) and “rebate” of $100 membership fee.
 - By prior arrangement with the team Board of Directors, additional travel expense reimbursements may be available for up to 2 ‘squad races’, which a minimum of 4 members of a Squad (or if a squad has less than 4 members, then the entire squad) attend and race together

2018 Team Membership Fees

The team membership fee is both a concrete representation of your commitment and an important part of our budget, supporting the team's activities, events and infrastructure. The membership fee for 2018 is again $100 (waived for Booster Members), payable by check or Money Order, to "Chico Cycling Team".

Chico Cycling Team Code of Conduct

As a 501.c.3 organization, Chico Cycling Team exists to promote rider development, support the cycling lifestyle and reach out into the community about cycling. The best way to achieve our goals is a shared vision, and the purpose of this code is to define our team culture and set clear expectations of every team member. All members are expected to abide by this Code of Conduct at all times, and especially when wearing the team uniform.

1. Safety: Chico Cycling Team racers abide by traffic laws, wear helmets and use common sense and good judgment during all rides. Chico Cycling Team racers encourage other riders to follow the same safety guidelines.
2. Lifelong Learning & Education: In support of rider development at all levels of cycling, Chico Cycling Team racers find opportunities to practice the essential skills, etiquette, and rules of the road (or the trail), and share our knowledge with new members and other riders whenever possible.
3. Respect & Encouragement: Despite differences in skill and fitness levels, and preferred types of riding that inevitably exist amongst our team members, we respect the talent, developmental stage and goals of each cyclist, and help all cyclists reach their full potential. We respect the rights, dignity and worth of every human being, and within the context of the activity, treat everyone equally regardless of ethnic origin, religion, and/or gender.
4. Team Focus: Chico Cycling Team members are committed to enhancing team races, events and activities to the best of our collective ability, and offer our diversified skill sets to help make all Chico Cycling Team events successful and enjoyable.
5. Represent: All Chico Cycling Team members practice good sportsmanship and conduct ourselves in a professional manner at all cycling and non-cycling events where we are representing Chico Cycling Team and our sponsors (before, during and after an event or training ride). Chico Cycling Team athletes are conscious of our roles as ambassadors to both the recreational cycling and non-cycling communities, and inappropriate behaviors by team members are not tolerated. Chico Cycling Team will honor any disciplinary action taken against any rider by USAC, NCNCA, or NORBA.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand this Code of Conduct, and agree to abide by this Code of Conduct. My membership on the team is contingent upon my on-going compliance.
